

MASTERMIND GROUP

Attention, Managers!

Do you want an encouraging, growth-minded local community group to help you solve issues in leadership of your employees?

Do you believe that there is more growth potential when successful minds collaborate?

Join this unique Mastermind Group with “people who understand” and learn leadership skills, utilize success resources, and develop goals that lead to focused people-development!

Homework?!

Investing in ground-work with monthly growth assignments given in between meetings to get the most out of each session (leadership book, vision worksheet, etc).

Paul D. Casey

Master Mind Groups offer a combination of brainstorming, education, peer accountability and support in a group setting to sharpen your leadership and self-leadership skills.

“Unity is strength... when there is teamwork and collaboration, wonderful things can be achieved.”

–Mattie Stepanek
